I understand that AAA Legal Services, Inc., (d.b.a. "The Divorce Store"), is solely in the business of document preparation and processing. The Divorce Store is a full service paralegal program, but there are no lawyers associated with The Divorce Store. The Divorce Store prepares generic, standardized documents based on the information the client provides. I understand that if I wish to receive "legal advice" that I should contact an Attorney. I agree to hold AAA Legal Services, Inc., (d.b.a. "The Divorce Store"), it's employees, owners, stockholders and agents harmless from any claims or losses resulting from errors, omissions or other claims. I understand that it is my responsibility to check my documents for errors prior to signing and/or filing them.

CUSTOMER WAIVER FORM

Please be advised of the following:

1. There may be additional fees due to the following circumstances, (including but not limited to):
 - changes to your documents after they have been prepared and or printed.
 - if an extension of time needs to be filed in your case.
 - if you need to change the method of “service”.
 - to correct (it is your responsibility to thoroughly review your documents prior to signing them).
 - if you want to make any changes to your documents after they have been filed with the court.
 - if your case is contested (your spouse files a response).
2. The Divorce Store staff will speak only to YOU, the “PETITIONER” regarding your case. We will not knowingly speak to the “Respondent” (the other party) or anyone else regarding your case. It is important to ask for the Legal Document Preparer who has been assigned to you if you have any questions regarding your case.
3. It is important to remember that all documents filed with the court are public record; therefore, you or the other party may receive solicitations regarding your case.

I acknowledge that I have received, read and understood a copy of this information.
